

HAF Chairman's Letter – September 2021

Dear HAF Members,

It was lovely to see so many of you on the 1st of September at our first live Demo since March 2020. Your committee worked hard during the previous week to make sure that everything was in order and the artist was Dave White gave an excellent demo on how to paint 'Sea and Waves' in acrylics.

FUTURE LIVE DEMOS.

Our next live demo will be on the 6th October when we hope as many of you as possible will join us to see Max Hale showing us how to paint a 'Café Scene' in water mixable oils and pallet knife. This will be followed on the 3rd of November by Ian Penny who will show us his unique skills in Paper Cutting,

AGM

At our AGM on the 1st of December we will review the past two years, propose some changes to our rule book, review the impact of Covid on our finances and elect our committee along with other helpers and review our programme for 2022.

Keeping in mind that the Fellowship belongs to all of us and not just the committee if you have anything you want to include on the agenda please let me know.

ROLES WE NEED TO FILL

Dick Pearce has volunteered to take on the role of Exhibition Coordinator but needs help. Chris White has agreed to continue on the Exhibition Subcommittee but we could do with one or two more people to help.

At the moment it looks as if we will need to fill the role of Publicity Secretary.

The tea and coffee break provides a time to meet up with friends. Unfortunately it is not practical for Gillian Key to carry on in that role while at the same time trying to organise our guest artists. It would be nice to have a team of three or four people who could work together on a regular basis.

WHAT TO PAINT – MONTHLY CHALLENGE – 'A CAFÉ SCENE'

In line with our guest artist for October it seems an ideal opportunity to use your imagination and create your own café scene. If you would like to share your painting with others by showing it on our web site please send an email with a photograph of your painting to 'entries@highcliffe-art.info' along with your name, the title of your painting and the medium used. If you would like to sell your painting, just add the price you are asking.

I look forward to seeing as many of you as possible on 6th October for our next demo meeting but in the meantime stay safe.

Mike Daniels,

Chairman, Highcliffe Art Fellowship.
